The purpose of data processing is to be able to respond to your inquiries and provide the best possible offer/quote for you.

Scope of Processed Data:

During contact, it is necessary to provide your name, email address, and phone number.

Duration of Data Processing:

Personal data provided during contact will be stored until withdrawal, but you can request their deletion at any time.

Embedded Content from Other Websites

The posts available on the website may use embedded content from external sources (e.g., videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content from external sources behaves exactly as if we had visited another website.

These websites may collect data about visitors, use cookies, or employ third-party tracking codes, monitoring user behavior related to embedded content, especially if we have a user account and are logged into the site.

Further Data Processing

If the Data Controller intends to carry out further data processing, preliminary information will be provided about the essential circumstances of the data processing (legal background and basis for data processing, purpose of data processing, scope of processed data, duration of data processing).

Please be informed that the Data Controller is obligated to fulfill written data requests based on legal authorization from authorities. The Data Controller keeps a record of data transmissions in accordance with Section 15(2)-(3) of the Information Act (Infotv.) (which authority, what personal data, on what legal basis, when the Data Controller transmitted), and the Data Controller provides information about the content upon request, except where the law prohibits disclosure.

Additional Data Processing Activities: 3.1. Additional activity provided by the data processor: Using various additional features (e.g., newsletter sending).

3.2. Identification and contact details of the external data processor partner:

UNAS Online Kft. 9400 Sopron, Kőszegi út 14. +36-99/200-200 unas@unas.hu

3.3. The fact of data processing, scope of processed data: All personal data provided by the data subject during the use of the service.

3.4. Scope of data subjects: All individuals using the website.

3.5. Purpose of data processing: Operating the services provided by the data processor on the website.

3.6. Duration of data processing, deadline for data deletion: Data processing lasts until the termination of the agreement between the data controller and the data processor or until the data subject's deletion request is received by the data processor.

3.7. Legal basis for data processing: User consent, GDPR Article 6(1)(a) and (c), and Act CVIII of 2001 on certain issues of electronic commerce services and information society services, Section 13/A(3).

Additionally, during browsing on our online store, only cookies aimed at optimizing our marketing are placed on your device, and under no circumstances are the data collected in this way linked to a specific person.

Data Security Measures

The Data Controller declares that adequate security measures have been implemented to protect personal data against unauthorized access, alteration, transmission, disclosure, deletion, or destruction, as well as against accidental destruction and damage, and to prevent accessibility issues arising from changes in technology.

Your Rights during Data Processing

During the data processing, you have the following rights:

- The right to information,
- The right to rectification of data,
- The right to erasure of data,
- The right to restriction of data processing,
- The right to object.

Within the duration of data processing, you can request information from the Data Controller about the handling of your personal data. The Data Controller will provide you with written, comprehensible information about the processed data, the purpose and legal basis of data processing, its duration, and, if data transmission has occurred, who received or will receive the data and for what purpose. This information will be provided within the shortest time possible, but no later than 25 days from the submission of the request.

You can request the Data Controller to rectify your personal data within the duration of data processing. The Data Controller will respond to your request within 15 days at the latest.

You have the right to request the deletion of your personal data, and the Data Controller will fulfill this request within 15 days. However, the right to deletion does not apply if the Data Controller is legally obligated to further store the data or if, in accordance with Section 6(5) of the Information Act, the Data Controller is entitled to further process personal data (e.g., for billing purposes).

You can request the Data Controller to restrict the processing of personal data if the permanent deletion of data would violate the legitimate interests of the data subject. The blocked personal data can only be processed until the purpose that excluded the deletion of personal data is valid.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data:

- If the processing or transmission of personal data is necessary for the fulfillment of a legal obligation that applies to the Data Controller or for the legitimate interests of the Data Controller, the data recipient, or a third party, except in cases of mandatory data processing and in the cases specified in Section 6(5) of the Information Act;
- If the use or transmission of personal data occurs – without your consent – for direct marketing, public opinion research, or scientific research purposes.

The Data Controller will examine the objection within the shortest possible time, but no later than 15 days from the submission of the request, make a decision regarding its merits, and inform you in writing of the decision. If the Data Controller does not comply with the data subject's request for rectification, restriction, or deletion, within 25 days from receiving the request, they will provide in writing or, with the consent of the data subject, electronically communicate the factual and legal reasons for rejecting the request for rectification, restriction, or deletion.

Legal Remedies

If you believe that the Data Controller has violated any legal provisions related to data processing or has not fulfilled any of your requests, you have the option to initiate an investigation by the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (postal address: 1530 Budapest, Pf.: 5., email: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu) to stop the presumed unlawful data processing.

Please be informed that in case of violation of legal provisions related to data processing or if the Data Controller has not fulfilled any of your requests, you also have the right to take legal action against the Data Controller.

Modification of Data Processing Information

The Data Controller reserves the right to modify this data processing information. By using the website after the effective date of the modification, you accept the amended data processing information.
